WATER LEVEL IN YANGTZE LOWEST EVER, RATES HIGHER

River Steamers Not Able To Take Full Cargoes To Kiukiang

HANKOW ALSO HIT Germans Out Of Local Market; Exports Are Improving

BY DAVID ARAKIE (Financial Editor)

As a result of the brisk demand in Europe for cereals, vegetable oil, beans and seeds, large shipments have been going forward to European ports and the boats have been filled to capacity. Steamers engaged in the trade are reported to be making handsome profits. Freight rates are rising.

In contrast to this favorable condition the coastal trade is suffering. Shipments are small, and the Shanghai freight market is dull as space is abundant owing to the closing of the Liangho on account of ice.

On account of the Yangtze waters being low, ocean going steamers are not able to proceed to Hankow. All shipments of produce and merchandise are now being carried by the regular river boats.

River boats cannot take full cargo from Shanghai to Hankow or Kiukiang on account of the big drop in the water mark. They can load only 10 to 15 tons. At Hankow the water mark was 1 foot, 5 inches on Sunday last, and at Kiukiang 1 foot, 6 inches. Yesterday the water mark was 1 foot, 5 inches and 1 foot, 1 inch at Kiukiang. The river is still falling. There is a scarcity of space from Hankow to Shanghai chiefly as a result. The freight rate has, therefore, been raised.

Last year the lowest water mark registered at Wuhu was three feet, 10 inches, but this year, on January 26, it stood at one inch. The only parallel to this experience may be traced to four or five years ago when there was great drought in the land. This water mark is not expected to increase till after the middle of February.

IRON ORE EXPORTS

At present large shipments are being made from Tekong, near Wuhu, of iron ore to Japan. The iron ore is mined in the Taotung district, and the ore is shipped from Tekong, 30 miles from Wuhu. On the average, the exportation is about 20,000 tons, but in December last there went to Japan 35,000 tons, and January 30,000 tons, while for February 20,000 tons has been scheduled. On account of the decreasing waters at Tekong, the freight rate has gone up to Yen 2.70, the iron ore being consigned to the Wakamatsu Iron Works.

CHARTER MARKET

The charter market is affected unfavorably by the sluggish freight market, and rates are declining. Rates are expected to reach a still lower level and owners are now attempting to make long term contracts to protect themselves from further declines.

A number of boats on the route from Europe to Shanghai are experiencing difficulty in securing cargo, and have been obliged to call at extra ports in their effort to fill their spaces en route to Shanghai and the Orient.

GERMANY OUT

It is expected that the state of the freight market on vessels sailing during the next month or so on account of the political outlook and the decline of the mark is 25,000 to a ton, and at this rate the German manufacturers cannot afford to buy in China.

ROTTERDAM IMPORTANT

The demand from Rotterdam should continue to be brisk as Rotterdam feeds Holland, and the latter country buys a tremendous quantity of seeds from China. Boats leaving Shanghai for Hamburg and Rotterdam have their Shanghai allotments filled for the moment. All vessels are going to Europe without available space. There is a great deal of rush cargo from Hankow and river ports to Shanghai, which is

AUTHORITY IN CANTON MUCH DIVIDED; SUN'S MEN WINNING

Yunnan And Kwangsi Generals At Loggerheads

CITIZENS ANGRY Fukien Troops, On Way South, Likely To Decide Issue

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, Jan. 31.—The real power of Canton is now actually in the hands of the Yunnan army, some 13,000 strong, and General Shen Hung-ying's army, some 10,000 strong, who have completely disarmed the 3rd Cantonese Division.

In consequence, General Liu Chen-huan, who is attached to Dr. Sun Yat-sen's faction, finding himself in danger of bodily harm, has removed to Shihlung at the head of 3,000 men. Inasmuch as an understanding has already been effected between General Li Lieh-chun and General Hung Chao-lin, the former is now holding his own in Swatow with some 20,000 men, while General Hsu Chun-chih is now marching towards Lungyenchow near the border of Kwangtung at the head of some 10,000 men.

Some 3,000 men under the command of General Chu Pei-teh, belonging to Dr. Sun's faction, are now stationed in the vicinity of Wuchow. The navy under the command of Admiral Wen Shu-teh is still maintaining neutrality. It is reported on good authority that General Chen Chung-ming, with the remnants of his defeated troops, is holding his own at a point between Huichow and the border of Kiangse.

Thus at present in Kwangtung several generals are holding their respective grounds.

In the meantime, the Mingting Party and the Chenghsuehwhui are strenuously active. Rumors say that internal troubles have arisen between the Yunnan troops and the troops under General Shen Hung-ying and that among the Yunnan troops, there are those who, while maintaining an outward connection with General Shen Hung-ying, are secretly communicating with Dr. Sun's faction. Owing to the insolence and arbitrariness on the part of the Yunnan and Kwangse forces, now in Canton, the outcry of the citizens against these troops has become very loud. There are now those who are forming a plan to expel the Yunnan and Kwangse troops from Canton upon the return here of General Hsu Chun-chih's troops from Fukien. Under these circumstances, how long the present influence of the troops from Kwangse and Yunnan will last here is being looked upon as a most interesting question.

(China Press Service)

Peking, Jan. 30.—Gen. Wu Peifu has referred to the Government a telegram which he received on Monday from Gen. Shen Hung-ying, Commander-in-chief of the Kwangsi troops in Canton. The telegram gives Gen. Shen's version of the incident at the Council of War summoned by the Yunnan and Kwangsi generals in Canton on Friday, when through a pre-arranged plot, Gen. Wei Pang-ping, Commander-in-chief of the Cantonese troops, who attended the military conference, was put under arrest, brutally attacked and is reported to have been assassinated. The telegram reads as follows:

"Gen. Wei Pang-ping aroused the indignation of the Yunnan forces, owing to the murder (by his bodyguards) of a representative of Gen. Yang Shih-min. The Yunnan troops sought revenge. I, however, immediately asked General Wei to take refuge in my headquarters. I await the arrival of Dr. Sun Yat-sen so that he may settle the matter. I have never had the intention of inflicting injury on General Wei."

"Canton is quiet. I hope that Doctor Sun will reach here shortly to assume the leadership of the Southwest so as to launch his big scheme."

"I humbly request that you (General Wu) urge President Li Yuan-hung and Premier Chang Shou-tseng to telegraph to Doctor Sun and Mr. Tsen Chun-huan asking them jointly to attend to the rehabilitation of Kwangtung."

BROADCASTED RADIO MUSIC IS 'APPLAUDED' VIA WIRELESS

Professor Robertson Arranges Unique Demonstration

GOOD PROGRAM Messrs. Harmon, Sharp, Kettlewell, Howells, Alexander Heard

Tonight's Radio Program

A variegated program of musical numbers will be on the program to be broadcasted from the roof of the Dollar building by THE CHINA PRESS-RADIO Corporation of China tonight beginning at 8 o'clock.

8:10 Mr. Aaronson, violinist at the New Carlton, and brother of the famous Joe, leader of the Carlton orchestra, will play two violin solos.

1. "Steppin' At The Carlton" and "Florence," written by "Whitey" Smith of the Carlton orchestra.

2. "A Chinese Lullaby." 8:30 The Del Monte Orchestra, featuring the 'king of trap drummers' in several orchestra selections.

8:45 Hamilton and Mills, song-birds in duets and solos. 9 p.m. News bulletins and phonograph selections.

Tomorrow night's program will be published in THE CHINA PRESS tomorrow morning—it's a surprise and will be worth hearing.

Applause by radio was given for the first time in China last night at the conclusion of a piano solo by Mr. Eddie Harmon, leader of the Hotel Parisien orchestra.

During last night's program, which was heard plainly and distinctly by well over 1,000 sets in Shanghai and vicinity, Mr. E. G. Osborn of the Radio Corporation of China which, in co-operation with THE CHINA PRESS, broadcasts the programs nightly, arranged with Prof. C. H. Robertson of the Y.M.C.A. to try out the new stunt.

Prof. Robertson had a number of guests at the 'Y' laboratories at 20 Museum Road, where both broadcasting and receiving sets are in operation, and when Mr. Harmon finished "Coaxing The Piano," his piano solo, the applause at the Museum Road station was so loud and distinct it could be heard by everyone at the station on the Dollar building. Between numbers on the program the Museum Road and Dollar building stations also talked back and forth without difficulty.

GOOD PROGRAM

In addition to Mr. Harmon an exceptionally good program was sent out on wireless waves last night. Mr. Roy Sharp, entertainer at the Hotel Parisien, sang two snappy jazz solos—"Vamp Me" and "Red Headed Mama Blues"—getting a great hand from the visitors at the station as well as being congratulated by amateurs "listening in."

Mr. J. T. Kettlewell, tenor with the A.D.C., made a hit with two vocal solos he sang for his invisible audience. Mr. Kettlewell, who was accompanied on the piano by Mr. W. Howells, sang "At Dawning" and "For You Alone." Mr. Kettlewell was in fine voice and at the conclusion of his songs Prof. Robertson called to tell the broadcasters that both songs had been heard very well and immensely enjoyed.

Two violin solos were also on last night's program. Mr. Alexander of the Hotel Parisien band playing "The Swan" and "Serenade" (Drda). Amateurs who called the broadcasting station reported that even the high, thin notes of the violin were transmitted to them perfectly and congratulated Mr. Alexander on his "radio technique."

"Larry," who writes Chin Chin, the pagoda of piffle, in THE CHINA PRESS every day, also read his column which appears on the editorial page today.

The usual news bulletins, which are becoming a feature of the entertainment via wireless, and several orchestra selections on the phonograph were also played.

Cotton Curtailment Vote Fails In U. S.

(Reuters Service)

London, Jan. 30.—The ballot taken by the American section of the cotton spinning trade failed to give the necessary 80 percent majority required for the suggested continuance of curtailment in the output to four days in the week, thus leaving the trade free to act as it pleases.

The vote resulted 73 1/2 percent in favor of curtailment, 9 1/2 percent against and 17 percent did not vote. The committee, however, decided by a vote of 37 to 4 to recommend continued curtailment.

Radio Ends Isolation Of Pitcairn Island

(China Press Correspondence)

Sydney—Wireless has come to the rescue of lonely Pitcairn Island, which loomed large in fiction and history as the refuge of the mutineers of the British sloop Bounty years ago.

Until now the islanders have been compelled to depend for their news of the outside world upon the occasional visits of ships. A wireless plant has just been landed, and will do much to relieve the isolation of the island residents, according to advices reaching here. Some of the young men of the island have been learning the Morse code.

The men who boarded the ship which landed the plant seemed to have a good knowledge of money value, and obtained a good price for their goods, according to the ship's officers.

Industrial organization of the Ruhr district in the face of German opposition, and that the results of the occupation are so far negative. In the meantime telegrams from Berlin say that German government officials are determined upon a course of methodical passive resistance, and that they will take no steps looking to further negotiations.

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Washington, Jan. 31.—The German embassy here has published a statement from the Berlin foreign office to the effect that the French soldiers in the Ruhr used horsewhips to drive the German employees out of telegraph offices, and that German women were whipped along with the men.

Paris, Jan. 30.—The Reparations Commission today decided to fix the German deliveries of coal for February at 1,676,000 tons. Britain abstained from voting.

A further substantial batch of expulsions is reported from all parts of the occupied territory, including responsible police, finance and Customs officials.

Essen is at present isolated owing to the strike but it is believed that the strikers will resume today, having "substantially protested."

Duesseldorf, Jan. 30.—General Degoutte, the French Commander on the Rhine, in a statement to the press declared:

"The Allies do not wish to disturb the normal life of the German people."

"The German Government's most provocative policy has not succeeded in shaking our self-command."

"Moderation, however, does not mean weakness."

"They are mistaken who think that our patience is unlimited. We will break our adversaries' and impose ours."

"We intend to use all means to achieve our ends."

"Nothing can change us from our purpose."

"The fate of Germany lies in her own keeping."

(French Wireless Through Reuters)

Paris, Jan. 30.—The French Minister of Public Works, M. Le Troquer, and General Weygand today reported to the Belgian Government on the results of their two recent tours in the Ruhr.

The exchange of views showed that perfect agreement reigned between the French and Belgian Governments on the measures proposed.

M. Le Troquer declared that in spite of the German strikes trains were running and the transport of troops and military and naval supplies were assured. The stations would soon be opened to civilian travellers.

FRENCH NOTE TO TURKS STIRS BRITISH ENVOYS; NEAR EAST WAR NEARER

Delegates Say Report, If True, Would Constitute Flagrant Violation Of Understanding At Lausanne

KEMALISTS PREPARE TO FIGHT

Troop Concentrations Near Constantinople And In Thrace; Grave Apprehension Felt In London Over Situation

(Reuters Service)

Lausanne, Jan. 30.—The Temps report of a French Note to Ankara has created a stir among the British delegation who discredit the statement since the Note would be a flagrant violation of the mutual understanding and would also have been issued without reference to the British Government.

It is believed that the French and Italians are prepared to stay at Lausanne to continue negotiations, if necessary, but the British do not propose to alter their previous plans.

(French Wireless Through Reuters)

Paris, Jan. 30.—The Temps announces from an official source that British troops have been sent to Mosul as a precautionary measure. The newspapers announce that the situation at Constantinople is calm. The British have transferred their base to Gallipoli.

The Temps state there is no new development at Lausanne except the confirmation of the tendency of the Turks to thrust the responsibility for the check to the negotiations on the Allies.

The convention, annexed to the Peace Treaty, with regard to exchange of populations was signed by the Turkish and Greek plenipotentiaries. The Italian delegate, presiding over that sub-commission, expressed the hope that the signatures to be exchanged would be promptly given.

(Reuters Service)

Constantinople, Jan. 30.—The gravest apprehension is felt with regard to the situation which may develop here in the event of a rupture at Lausanne. The most probable consequence will be war.

While the British have scrupulously observed the Mudania Convention, the Kemalists have been organizing their forces for the eventuality of a rupture. There are 20,000 armed Turks in Constantinople.

Rafet Pasha commands 30,000 men in Thrace. There is good reason to believe that a considerable amount of artillery has been smuggled across the Sea of Marmora. There are important Kemal concentrations at Ismid and Chankar.

Consequently in the event of Turkish attack the task of General Sir Charles Harington, the British High Commissioner at Constantinople, with his limited forces engaged possibly on four fronts simultaneously, will not be easy.

The force is undoubtedly the finest of its size Britain has ever possessed.

Supported by the whole of the Mediterranean Fleet, a large part of the Atlantic Fleet and the pick of the Air Force, it can be trusted to give a magnificent account of itself but it will not be fair to ask for miracles.

(Reuters Service)

Paris, Jan. 30.—The Turkish Treaty provides for the freedom of the Straits subject to certain reservations providing, inter alia, that Turkey is entitled to search neutral merchantmen when she is a belligerent.

The maximum force for which any Power will have the right of passage will not exceed the strongest fleet of the Black Sea Powers but the Powers in any case will be entitled to passage for a force not exceeding three warships, none of them exceeding 10,000 tons.

The reservations do not apply to belligerents to the prejudice of their rights as belligerents in the Black Sea.

Turkey and the Black Sea Powers, including Russia, will be able to limit the number of vessels or of aircraft of any Power wishing to visit simultaneously their ports and aerodromes.

A zone of 15 kilometres on either side of the frontier from the Aegean Sea to the Black Sea will be demilitarized and also both shores of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus to a depth of 15 kilometres on either side.

The Turks will be allowed to maintain a garrison of 12,000 men at Constantinople.

An international commission, consisting of representatives of the Great Powers, Turkey, Bulgaria, Greece, Rumania, Yugoslavia and Russia with a Turkish president, will assure observance of the rules of passage under the League of Nations.

In the event of violation of the Convention the high contracting

California Shriners In City; To Be Entertained At Astor House Tonight

Auto Trips About City And Dinner At Carlton Follow Welcoming Ceremonies By Local Lodgemen

Shriners from Islam Temple, San Francisco, on a pilgrimage through the Far East to hold ceremonies at Manila, Shanghai and Peking, arrived at the President Wilson yesterday afternoon and have been busy ever since taking advantage of the hospitality proffered by members of Nomad Oasis, the local Shrine club.

The party of Shriners includes forty members of Islam and other American temples, and forty ladies. En route from San Francisco they visited Honolulu and Japan ports, and will sail for Manila tomorrow to hold their ceremonial there during the Manila Carnival. They will return to Shanghai for their ceremonial here on February 16 and will then go on to Peking, returning to the United States via Korea, Japan and Hawaii.

The Shriners were greeted severally at a hundred miles at sea by radio.

President George Fowler welcomed them from the China Press-Radio Corporation of China broadcasting station on the roof of the Dollar building on Wednesday night.

GREETED BY LOBINGIER Yesterday afternoon Noble Charles S. Lobingier of Tangier Temple of Omaha and representative on behalf of the members of Nomad Oasis and the American community of Shanghai, at an informal reception held on board the vessel. Local Shriners, accompanied by the Russian Cadets brass band and a regiment of coolies firing off fireworks served as the background for Judge Lobingier's welcome.

Judge Lobingier greeted the Shriners as follows:

"Daughters of the Golden State and Nobles of Islam Temple:

"It is with no idle ceremony of words that the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in China have assembled here to bid you welcome. Many of us have enjoyed the lavish hospitality of Islam Temple and have long awaited an opportunity to reciprocate. If I may be permitted to speak of my own experience, it is now just a little more than twenty years since, as a representative of my Temple I attended at San Francisco the 28th session of the Imperial Council of which Islam Temple was the host. Never shall I forget the experiences of that occasion. To the generous and spontaneous hospitality of the Golden West was added the buoyant fraternal spirit of the Shrine leaving memories which can never fade."

"The Shriners of China, many of whom are members of Islam Temple, hope to share and return the good fellowship for which it is so justly famed. Here in old China we hope to give you an experience which, if not so elaborate as that which we have enjoyed at your hands, will have at least some novel features."

"You are now in the Orient—the original home of the Mystic Shrine. Its traditions, imagery and symbolism are all Oriental. We greet you as pilgrims to the ancestral dwelling place and bid you the heartiest welcome of which we are capable."

Judge Lobingier then presented a large silver key, symbolizing the freedom of the city, to illustrious Potentate McKevitt, who heads the visiting members of Shrinemod.

Following the informal reception the visitors were taken on a sightseeing excursion about the Settlement and French Concession in local Shriners' cars before the Chinese opposition to the construction of the Great Western Road extension, in Chinese territory, figures in correspondence published in today's Municipal Gazette.

It will be recalled that the proposed extension met with opposition in 1918, when work was held up pending an agreement. The correspondence now published includes protests from residents in the Fa Wha Village, transmitted to the Shanghai District Magistrate and by him to the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs, who communicated with the Senior Consul, asking him to see that the road building was suspended.

In a reply on behalf of the Municipality, Mr. H. G. Stimmis, Chairman of the Council, states that following the protest in 1918 negotiations were entered into and in consequence a new line of the road was planned, so that the parties objecting were not affected by the construction. The right of way was secured without difficulty from landowners, who, in fact, welcomed the new outlet. The Council submits that the Chinese authorities are acting under a misapprehension of the facts in the case and presumes that the trouble has arisen out of a petition circulated by the residents of the Fa Wha Village, whose land holdings are not actually contiguous to the proposed road and are not therefore directly interested in the matter.

parties and in any event France, Britain, Italy and Japan will intervene jointly with all means that the Council of the League of Nations shall determine.

The capitalizations are abrogated in principle but temporary arrangements are provided with regard to the fiscal, commercial and customs regimes.

Turkey will pay 15,000,000 Turkish gold pounds as war damages at 5 percent interest and with a 1 percent sinking-fund in 27 annual payments of 500,000 Turkish gold pounds, the first payment to be made on March 1, 1924.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Jan. 30.—At the meeting of the Council of the League of Nations today, Earl Balfour announced that, if the Turks rejected arbitration by the League with regard to Mosul and consequently peace seemed threatened, Britain would invoke Article Eleven of the Covenant which provides that the League shall take action to safeguard the peace of Nations in the event of any threat of war.

(Reuter's Service)

The Council merely took note of Earl Balfour's declaration and passed to other business.

Bagdad, Jan. 30.—Troops from Basra and Bagdad are continuing to reinforce the garrison at Mosul with a view to eliminating the possibility of a Kurdish raid invited by the Turks. The main Turkish concentration is now on the frontier a hundred miles north-west of Mosul.

The Iraq vernacular papers indicate that public opinion is turning strongly anti-Turkish.

Authority In Canton Divided

The continuation of the intestine war only makes the people suffer the more. This, it is believed, is contrary to the desire of Doctor Sun and Mr. Tsen to have the country. An immediate reconciliation (between the Kuomintang and Chengshuehshai Parties) is, therefore, imperative.

As regards the officials of Kwangtung and Kwangsi, I suggest that Doctor Sun and Mr. Tsen make joint recommendations to the Government which will then effect the appointments accordingly.

(China Press Service)

Hongkong, Jan. 30.—Gen. Li Shih-chun, who arrived at Swatow on Monday escorted by the cruisers, Shao Ho and Yu Tsang, and was warmly welcomed by the military commanders there, is reorganizing the forces of Gen. Hung Chao-lin, Gen. Huang Feng-lin and Gen. Chung Ching-tang and the remnants of Gen. Chen Chung-ming's troops.

General Li's troops at Swatow will be reinforced by Gen. Hsu Chung-chi's army which is returning to Kwangtung from the eastern front. Assisted by the defense flotilla which has declared its support for the Kuomintang leaders and is being anchored off Canton, the combined forces of Gen. Li's and Gen. Hsu's troops will march on Canton. The Cantonese army under the command of Gen. Li Foh-lin will effect a junction at Hainan.

A circular manifesto has been issued by the local United Street Unions, supporting the proposal of disbandment of troops put forward by Dr. Sun Yat-sen in a recent declaration.

"We have examined the two principal features of Doctor Sun's scheme, namely—that foreign loans be floated for the purpose of disbandment and that the foreign creditors be allowed to exercise supervision over the expenditure of the funds. We have found that they are wholesome and sound. Since the Powers are invited to exercise supervision over the expenditure of the funds only during the period of disbandment, it is impossible for them to take the instance as precedent for intervention in China's internal affairs after the scheme has been carried out."

Canton, Jan. 30.—With the departure of Mr. Hu Han-min, Civil Governor of Kwangtung, and Mr. Yang Si-yen, Chief of the Kwangtung Financial Administration, the provincial administration is in a chaotic state approaching anarchy.

Gen. Shen Hung-ying, Commander-in-Chief of the Kwangsi troops, has ordered the Provincial Assembly to "elect" a Civil Governor, nominating Yang Yung-tai and Li Yao-tang.

Nothing Definite In Coltan Case

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 31.—Dr. Schurman, the American Minister, recently again called on the Premier with reference to the Coltan case, after which the Premier summoned Messrs. Chiang Hsiang-ping and Shih Chow-chang, who were formerly delegated to Kalgan to investigate the case.

Numerous conflicting rumors are current regarding the case, which Americans and other foreigners here have in no way forgotten but nothing official can at present be given out.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO DISCUSS PLANS FOR NEW BUILDING

All members of the American Woman's Club are urged to attend the regular meeting of the organization to be held Tuesday afternoon, February 6 at 4 o'clock at the old Carlton Cafe on Ningpo Road as plans for the building of the new Woman's Club house will be discussed.

The Social Service Department will not present the program planned for Tuesday as the entire afternoon will be devoted to business.

The Executive Board asks that every member interested be present. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock.

gathering at the Astor House Hotel, which is their headquarters in Shanghai, for a series of informal chats.

Last night they were entertained at the New Carlton on Bubbling Well at a dinner dance attended by about 100 couples. During dinner the Golden Gate Quartette, hailing from California, sang for the Shriners.

DANCE AT ASTOR

Today the Shriners will be taken for more auto trips about the city and the Shriners' ladies will be taken shopping and visiting by the wives of Shanghai Shriners.

Tonight Manager Roger L. Moore has turned the Astor House grill over to the Shriners for their exclusive use and they will stage a formal dinner and ball, full dress and fez, and attended only by Shriners and their families. Earl Curran's jazz orchestra will furnish the dancing inspiration.

The Shriners will continue on to Manila on the President Wilson, returning on February 16 when a more complete program has been arranged for them.

Illustrious Potentate McKevitt, who received President Fowler's radiophone greetings, and other Nobles from the American temples expressed themselves as delighted with the spirit that actuated the local Shriners to greet them over the miles of sea by radiophone. They were all somewhat surprised and considerably pleased to discover that Shanghai, through The China Press and the Radio Corporation of China, was able to enjoy broadcasting in common with the rest of the world. All, of course, are thoroughly conversant with the radio work now being carried on in the United States where millions of sets are in daily operation.

At The Del Monte

A special entertainment program has been arranged by the Del Monte Cafe management for the benefit of the visiting Shriners tonight. Feature numbers in the bill will be provided by the two famous Hawaiian dancers who made such a hit with audiences of several weeks ago. The dancers came to Shanghai following an engagement of several months at the peace exposition in Japan, where they excited much admiration. One of the dancers was selected from among the best native dancers of Hawaii to dance before the Prince of Wales when he visited Honolulu.

In addition to the program, the Del Monte announces specialities in the midnight supper line, prepared by the cafe's new French chef.

have been picked for radio transmission. The Del Monte Orchestra, which features 'the king of trap-drummers' and a saxophonist with a note that cried like a lost soul, will play a number of orchestra selections through the courtesy of Mr. Al Israel, manager of the Del Monte.

Mr. Bernard Aronson, violinist at the New Carlton of Bubbling Well Road, and brother of the equally famous Joe Aronson, leader of the Carlton jazz band, will play two violin solos tonight. The first, which is a medley of "Florence" and "Steppin' At The Carlton," two Carlton favorites, were both written by "Whitney" Smith of the Carlton jazz-hounds. His second solo will be "A Chinese Lullaby."

In addition to the instrumental numbers Hamilton and Mills, the popular song team who have entertained many Shanghaierers during their stay here, will sing two solo numbers—jazz songs and a ballad—a duet or two. Hamilton and Mills are leaving for the near future for the Philippines and Java, on a tour, and expressed delight at being invited to sing for the radio fans here before their departure.

HEARD 300 MILES

Among the visitors at the broadcasting station last night were the wireless operators from the President Wilson who reported that they heard the radio concert when Mr. George Flower welcomed the Shriners on board the vessel approximately 300 miles from Shanghai. As soon as broadcasting becomes more general it is expected that ships to and from Shanghai will be able to hear the nightly concerts broadcasted from the roof of the Dollar building at a much greater distance.

Shanghai is growing more and more interested in the radio and both the Radio Corporation of China and the Radiator Editor of The China Press are receiving large numbers of letters of inquiry. Because of the demand for receiving sets all who desire them cannot be accommodated at once but the number of sets in Shanghai is growing daily by leaps and bounds, and as the radio becomes better known the number of sets in other parts of the country will increase greatly.

A number of splendid programs have been arranged by The China Press for a considerable period ahead and other entertainers have advised The Radio Editor that they would be glad to sing and play for the radio listeners. It is a unique experience for the entertainers as well as the listeners, and all who have appeared so far have expressed their delight and willingness to appear on the programs again in the near future.

U. S. Invention To Revolutionize Radio

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 31.—An invention of far-reaching importance in wireless telegraphy is reported from America in the form of an improved thermionic valve capable of dealing with thousands of kilowatts. The advocates of the invention are optimistically predicting that generating and transmitting stations will ultimately be made obsolete by it.

COURT SERVANT BROUGHT UP ON BRIBERY CHARGE

Assessor Is Complained in Case Involving Chinese Attache

A former Mixed Court "unchal," or usher, was brought up before Assessor Blackburn and Magistrate Yul yesterday on charges of bribery in connection with a civil case.

The charge reads that the accused, Yong Ching-sung, accepted from one Li Kye-tshien two promissory notes for a total of Tls. 3,000 for the purpose of delivering them to Kwan Hsueh-yuen, a Mixed Court secretary, as a bribe relating to the performance of his official duties in connection with a civil action then pending.

Detective Inspector Cruickshank stated that the man had been arrested on a warrant Tuesday and asked a remand. He read a statement taken from the accused in which the latter denied knowing certain persons regarding whom he had been questioned, but said that on Saturday one Zee Kwe-sung had come to his house on Chekiang Road and asked if defendant had some promissory notes. He became angry at this and ordered the man away.

Mr. Snyder, appearing for the defendant, objected to the admission of this statement. He had no time to go into the case, he said, and would like to know the name of the complainant.

"I can clear that point up for you: I am the complainant," replied Assessor Blackburn. "Certain information was given me and I thought that in the interests of justice and of all concerned the matter should be cleared up. An investigation will be made and wherever the trail leads it will be followed. A proper charge has not yet been made, but the matter will be under investigation. It may be that this charge will have to be withdrawn, but if a charge is framed you may be sure the man will have a fair trial."

The Court refused an application for bail, the Assessor remarking that it was of the utmost importance that the accused be kept clear of those who frequent the Mixed Court.

"We know that at present a great deal of influence is under way to get the accused out," he said. "The application for bail cannot be entertained."

The accused was ordered remanded in custody for one week.

Peking House Passes "Chaban"

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 31.—The House of Representatives today passed a "chaban" condemning General Tsai Chen-hsun for failing to restore order in Kiangsi, not allowing Mr. Hsieh Yuan-han to enter the province and using educational funds for military purposes.

The House also passed a resolution extending the present session for four months, till June 11, and asking the Senate to support the resolution.

The House also asked the Premier to come to the House and explain his views with reference to the restoration of the Chinese Eastern Railway. The Premier has promised to attend for this purpose at the next sitting.

a transshipping point. Merchandise is being sent down from Hankow even by lighters.

EXPORTS IMPROVE

For some weeks past there has been perceptible a distinct improvement in exports generally. Shipments at present from Shanghai comprise principally silks, strawbraid, wool, skins and walrus to the Pacific Coast. The shipments of silks to New York are less than previous months but about the same as the last two years. The Pacific Freight Conference rates are steady but it is rumored that they will go up.

IMPORTS IMPROVE

Shipments from New York and Pacific Coast are about the same level as previous months. From New York and inland points there are arriving regular shipments of cigarettes, metals, machinery and flour and a little wheat.

Import cargo from England is also showing an improvement and a fair quantity of ocean freight is being discharged in Shanghai.

The exportation of salt from Haichow has been practically suspended on account of the canal being ice-bound.

The outward services from the Orient to the American Atlantic ports continue active from Shanghai, Hongkong and Yokohama, with shipments of seeds and miscellaneous cargo.

Shipments of sugar from Java, which have been brisk in the past month or so have declined. Large quantities of Japanese sugar have been going to Japan. With the decline in the export from Surabaya there has come a drop in the freight rate of five to ten sen per picul.

Arrivals of coal from Japan are small and the freight rate between Japan and Shanghai for this commodity is about the same. From Dairen to Shanghai it is $1.65 per ton, but Manchurian coal is no longer in demand in Shanghai, the demand for Fushun coal being extant only during the coal strike in the Kailan mines.

(Reuter's Service)

(Reuter's Service)

BUDGET FIGURES CONSIDERED BY COMMITTEEMEN

Various Important Appropriations Approved For 1923

A number of important budget appropriations for the current year have been considered at recent meetings of the various Municipal Committees, according to minutes published in today's Municipal Gazette.

The Committees minutes of those proceedings are given in the Health Committee, Works Committee and Orchestra and Band Committee. It is noted in connection with the estimates approved that these are subject to further scrutiny by the Finance Committee and the Council.

Considering 'extraordinary expenditure' the Health Committee report mentions that 70 mow of land has already been secured for the new cemetery but that members consider that 120 mow should be acquired and appropriations for this purpose are approved. A new crematory furnace to be installed at a cost of Tls. 5,000 is approved. The committee also approved expenditure of Tls. 99,000 for three new market sites, two in the Eastern and one in the Northern district, and an appropriation of Tls. 4,000 for extension of the Wayside market. The Committee also approved an appropriation for rebuilding the administration building at Mokanshan Sanatorium.

The sum of Tls. 20,000 for an open air swimming pool at Jessfield Park was endorsed, but this item was later excised at a meeting of the Council.

Appropriations approved by the Works Committee include: Tls. 344,400 for bridges—the principal ones being those for Thibet and Honan Roads; Tls. 93,000 for bunding; Tls. 103,950 for drainage; Tls. 538,700 for sewerage and Tls. 50,000 for reconstruction of the Bund Customs Examination shed and landing stage.

Under the heading of roads and land an appropriation of Tls. 250,000 had been inserted this year. It was considered desirable to increase this to Tls. 400,000. The 'Construction' appropriation was placed at Tls. 444,000, an increase of Tls. 140,000 on that of last year.

B.W.A. Tea Dance At New Carlton Attended By 1,100

More than 1,100 guests attended the tea dance which was given by the British Women's Association yesterday afternoon at the new Carlton Cafe for the purpose of raising funds for the work of the Entertainment Committee of the organization.

The affair was one of the most successful given by the club and the biggest of its kind ever held in the city.

To accommodate the record breaking crowd, tables were placed in the dining room, the ball room and the balcony. Despite the large number of guests there was no confusion because of the excellent arrangements made by the reception committee. Both Carlton bands were in attendance.

Among those who reserved tables for large parties were Mesdames Milne, Penney, Wallace, Peacock, Martin, Beaumont, Bridges, Davy, Paul, Spunt, McMichael, Wright, Trevine, Richard, Arnold, Reader, Harris, Mackay, Stitt, Swancoat, Davis, Combie, Maitland, Head, Archer, Sullivan, McKay, Burkill, Riddell, Kearton, Steptoe, Thompson, Marshall, Artyon, Page, Symons, Besureh, Summer-of a military nature. The Berlin Government had put into movement all measures to prevent the local population from replying to the appeal for collaboration. Made by the French authorities. The commonsense of the working classes having caused this plan to fail, the Government of the Reich had enjoined on high officials to put themselves into open rebellion. In face of this veritable provocation, the French army, inspired by more generous principles than the Prussian army, hesitated at brutal repression and gave an example of moderation and humanity, which, however, are not synonymous with weakness.

The responsibility for the evils which may befall the country falls on the German directors, who are obstinate in their stupid resistance. Nothing will turn France from her aim, which is to constrain the magnates of German industry to devote a part of their considerable profits to the settlement of reparations.

The railway strike on the left bank of the Rhine, almost complete yesterday evening, has grown considerably attenuated today. Traffic is normal except at Bonn and Coblenz. The strikers seem to have taken into consideration that the strike would do far more to prejudice the population of the Rhineland than France. There is no strike in the Bavarian Palatinate.

The Agence Havas confirms the report that the representatives of the Miners' Syndicate have unanimously rejected the proposal for a general strike and have adopted a resolution of formal protest against the Nationalist machinations, proclaiming their fidelity to the German Republic.

An official denial is made to the reports of fatal incidents between French soldiers and German Nationalists at Boppard. The burgomaster alone was arrested and there was no incident.

The German Minister of the Interior has informed the Budget Committee, of the Reichstag that the Government does not intend to increase the numbers of the Reichswehr.

TWO TO BE SHOT, TIENDONG ROAD MURDER VERDICT

Woman Accused Comes Up For Sentence Today

Convicted of the murder of Wong Daung-shing at 11 Tiendong Road on January 23, Kyong Kyu-da and Kyong Ah-nyi, brothers, were sentenced by Assessor Mead and Magistrate Loh yesterday to be sent to the Arsenal and shot. The amah, the wife of the murdered man and alleged sweetheart of one of the other defendants, is to be brought up for sentence today, following a medical examination.

At the final hearing of the case yesterday the three accused testified. Both of the male accused denied stabbing Wong to death, but the woman declared that they did the killing, using two Japanese swords taken from under the bed in which she and her husband were sleeping. She was employed in the home of a Japanese.

Mr. Eardley Maitland prosecuted the case for the police, and the accused were defended, at the request of the Court, by Mr. R. C. Faithfull.

Trade Mission From Moscow To Co-ordinate Effort

(Reuters' Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 31.—A Foreign Trade commission from Moscow arrived at Chita in the middle of December, stayed there 10 days and then went on to Vladivostok, seeking to co-ordinate the foreign trade policy of the former Far Eastern Republic with that of Soviet Russia.

The policies of the two have hitherto been somewhat different. The Soviet maintained the monopoly of foreign trade in the hands of the Government and import was only allowed of articles which could be used for further production. In the Republic, on the contrary, 95 percent of the imports have been for consumption.

Moscow wishes to shut out goods of foreign manufacture but has decided that this should not be carried out too abruptly and certain modifications are being made in Eastern Siberia.

The Soviet has a list of goods the importation of which is entirely forbidden. This will not be introduced in the Far East but a licensing system, under which permits must be obtained before goods can be imported, will come into force.

Certain exceptions and variations will be made in the tariff as compared with Soviet Russia but the Customs will be brought under Moscow's supervision.

An agreement on the above lines will probably be reached.

SOCCER TOUR OF AUSTRALIA NOW IS PLAN

Chinese Rugby Team Not Going Is Decision Announced

MILLARD TALKS

Would Have Athletes From This Country Play Association

A week ago Mr. H. A. Millard, representative of Rugby Football Associations of Australia and New Zealand, arrived in Shanghai to recruit a team of Chinese soccer football players, planning to teach the men the game of thirteen-a-side English rugby and take them on a four-months' trip of the Antipodes.

Mr. Millard announced yesterday that he had called his home organizations that he will bring a Chinese team to play their own game, soccer football, and he starts today to select the men.

The Australian delegate has decided that the Chinese amateur athletes should be introduced under the most favorable conditions and he has convinced his people that the Chinese should make the journey, even though they are to play a rival game.

Les Cubitt, famous international rugby star came here all the way from Australia to coach the thirteen-a-sides, and he said yesterday that he could mould a rugby team that would make an excellent showing in Australia. Millard, too, believes that the Chinese could get together a great rugby side before May first but decided to take the soccer eleven in order that the Chinese might appear to the best advantage.

The step is an unusual one. Here we see a group of rugby associations promoting a soccer tour, encouraging a rival game. But Australia wants to see the Chinese athletic aggregate and after a survey of the field and discussion with the ablest athletic executives of this country, Millard has made the decision to take a soccer team.

It is a delightful paradox where China is given an opportunity to send the cream of her soccer football material to a Western country where sport is written with a capital "S" by primary school kids at the expense of a group of clubs pledged to further a competitive game. Millard's decision means that China will be represented by fifteen men who will be at home in their togs when the referee's whistle blows, and who will not be obliged to meet unusual situations in a tight game with the handicap of not being too familiar with what they are doing, or are expected to do. This being one of the dangers of taking a rugby football team, of course.

Millard had a long conference yesterday with Dr. John H. Gray, representative in China of the World Olympic Committee, the man who keeps China to the fore in the Far Eastern Championships, and the individual who knows more about athletics in this country than anyone else. Dr. Gray is very enthusiastic about the decision made by Millard. He believes that China will make a better showing in association football than they would in rugby, and the Y.M.C.A. athletic executive has pledged his co-operation.

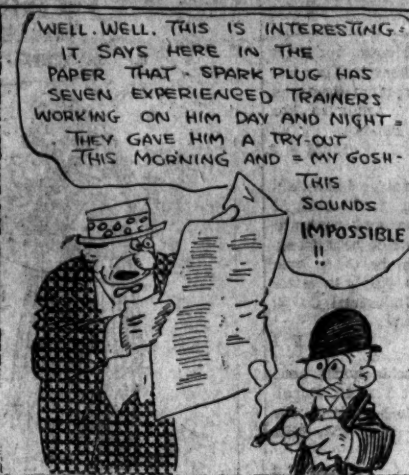

The Australian representative addressed Tsinghua and Chinese Recreation Club players after the game at the West Gate yesterday and they expressed their pleasure at the change in his plans. "Soccer is a game we know and can play well," a husky Tsinghua man submitted.

Mr. J. Shaw, who made the trip from Australia with Millard and Cubitt, left Hongkong yesterday for Australia. He will tell the Australian Clubs of the conditions here and the reasons for the shift in arrangements.

The association team is to sail from Hongkong on May third. While in Australia they will play about 17 games and in every city they are to be entertained by both the Australians and the Chinese. A civic reception will be given the North China athletes in every Australian city where they play.

While on the trip, Millard will attempt to interest them in rugby, and will return with the men, accompanied by Cubitt or another equally famous rugby coach. Then an attempt will be made to introduce thirteen-a-side in China and a rugby tour planned for 1924.

Shanghai Golf Club Members Urged To Send In Application Blanks

Officials of the Shanghai Golf Club are hopeful that all members of the organization who wish to take up membership in the newly incorporated club will immediately forward to Mr. H. H. Fowler, the Hon. Secretary, the filled-in application blanks recently sent out.

Some members of the old club apparently are under the impression that application for membership in the new club will involve the payment of a new initiation fee; but this is not the case.

The first members of the club (i.e., the newly incorporated club) shall be every person who has paid an entrance fee to, and who was at the date of the incorporation of the club a Life Resident, Waiting or Absent member of the unincorporated body known as "The Shanghai Golf Club," and who shall on or before the 31st day of January, 1923, or such extended period as the committee may determine, sign and deliver to the Secretary of the club the enclosed membership blank (i.e., the membership blank enclosed with the copy of the Red Book).

Thus it will be seen that there is no additional charge for old members of the club. The $100 entrance fee hereafter will have to pay $100 for full membership instead of $50 as heretofore, with memberships in the other classes increased proportionately.

In view of this it may be asked why the club is anxious for all members to send in the new blanks. The answer is: that these blanks, properly filled in, are desired in order that a new membership list may be compiled, with the correct addresses of all members, and the other necessary data included.

YANK ATHLETES GIVE BOOST TO SPORTS OF EUROPE

Participation of American athletes in international sporting events abroad has aroused great interest in America's athletic methods and has caused a widespread movement in Europe for the popularization of competitive sports, according to former Adjutant General H. Charles Sherrill, N. Y. N. G., American member of the International Olympic Committee, who recently returned to New York from a tour of Europe.

Gen. Sherrill said that America's highly developed athletic system and its beneficial effect on the building of the character of the nation's youth has been brought forcibly to the attention of European statesmen and educators by American athletes who have competed in European sporting events.

"Europe is waking up to the fact that there is no more effective factor in the creation of a sound national backbone of young men, healthy in mind and body, than the popularization of competitive sports," Gen. Sherrill asserted.

"My trip abroad showed me that Europeans realize more than we do how far we can attribute to our competitive sports, the health and power of our national life."

"The influence of American participation in events abroad has aroused the rivalry of Europe as to produce in many countries as radical a movement in athletics as Fascism is a radical movement in Italian politics.

"For example, association football has become so important in Spain that it attracts as large crowds than do the famous bull fights. Last June the International Olympic Committee voted to the Catalonian Confederation of Sports its silver cup, given to the nation making the greatest progress in sports during the year."

"The tremendous rivalry of athletes in Finland is well known because the small team of two dozen Finns finished second to America's numerous team at Antwerp. The Sokoff or athletic groups of Czechoslovakia are so successful that it is not unusual to have 10,000 competitors in a single set of games. Italy and France are not far behind. In Alexandria, Egypt, a huge athletic stadium is being built. In Japan baseball is almost as popular as in the United States."

Gen. Sherrill added that Europeans could never get over their astonishment at the popular interest in sports in America.

The statement that 300,000 Americans would train for the 1924 Olympic team greatly taxed their credulity, he said, while the fact was that nearer 1,000,000 men would try for it.

The Viceroy Cup, main event of the Christmas Meeting of the Royal Calcutta Turf Club, was won by Not Much. The race, over a course of a mile and three-quarters was for the purse of 45,000 Rupees and a Cup valued at $100 presented by His Excellency the Viceroy. The results were as follows:

Mr. Sangidas Festivants, Not Much 9 stone, 3 (W. Huxly) 1.

Mr. J. C. Galstaun's, Star Shot 9.3 (Doble) 2.

Mr. J. C. Galstaun's, Solo Bridge 9.3 (Northmore) 3.

Won by 1 1/4 lengths. Time 3.3.

Last year Not Much was beaten a short head by Roubalx for this rich prize. Roubalx also won in 1920 and retired to the stud in England after his second victory.

It is worthy of note that Willie Huxly has ridden the last three winners of the Viceroy Cup.

Two Thousand Won Thrilling Soccer Game On West Gate

SCORE 13

Peking Collegians Handicapped By Loss Of Three Men

BY K. S. CHANG

Before a crowd of approximately 2,000 spectators, the football eleven representing the Chinese Recreation Club defeated the Tsinghua College eleven from Peking by a score of 5 to 2 yesterday afternoon in a thrilling battle on the ground at West Gate. In the seven goals, the play was of a high standard, and the 1 1/2 crowd was well pleased.

The visitors won the toss and started the game with a good breeze behind them. They at once opened the attack which kept the Rees defense busy. The Rees replied after five minutes of play, but as their forwards were slow their attack was futile.

After 20 minutes of battling the Tsinghua team scored its first goal. Their right wing sent the ball squarely into the net with a beautiful header after some great passing work among the forwards.

After about ten minutes, they again scored. The crack left wing passed to the center with a good shot, and the inside left rushed up and headed the ball into the net while the goal-keeper was absolutely helpless. Lemon time came soon after and the score was 2 to 0 with the Tsinghua team leading.

The second half opened with the wind to the Rees' advantage. They immediately pressed hard and in

MIDDLE SCHOOL AT NANKING U. GETS CITY TITLE

Last week, the middle school championship of Nanking was played off between a small number of teams. Owing to the reputation of the Nanking University Middle School team this season, the entrants were few in number. The winners defeated Chinan Institute 3 to 1 in a splendid preliminary, and took the final by forfeit from the Middle School of Southeastern University. The winners are undoubtedly the best middle school team in the city, and probably the best in the province. They have won every game this year, playing a number of the strongest teams in Shanghai and Anhui as well as in Nanking.

BRITISH WOMAN GOLFER TELLS OF AMERICAN TOUR

Miss Cecil Leitch, the former British woman golf champion, is at present in the hands of a specialist for treatment of her arm, and she said recently that she could not define her prospects in the matter of playing in the next ladies' championship games.

Regarding her tour last summer in Canada and the United States, Miss Leitch declared it was purely of private nature. She was particularly impressed with women's golf in the Dominion. Of the outstanding players in Canada, Miss Ada Mackenzie and Miss Popler were probably the greatest.

Miss Alex Stirling was undoubtedly the greatest exponent of women's golf in the United States, in spite of the fact that she curtailed her play during 1922. She was the finest "shot maker" over there. She had more shots almost than any other player.

Miss Leitch considers that the majority of women's golf courses in the United States and Canada are easier than those in England. There is no undulation there as in England, and virtually no wind. The courses, however, are very much better kept.

Tsinghua Is Beaten By Chinese Recs

Ten minutes' time, succeeded in scoring three goals in rapid succession. It was a thrilling comeback. During the rest of the period, two more made the total score of five, and the losers failed to tally.

The first of the five goals the Recs scored came as a result of a good corner-kick sent by Zee, the right wing. As the ball dropped just in front of the goal, Wang, the center-forward shot, to the despair of the Tsinghua goalie. The second goal was scored through a penalty-kick by the right half-back, M. C. Chang. The other three were all scored by Harry Liang, the inside left, who, aided by the good combination of the forwards, scored on every chance.

The Tsinghua team had a good opportunity to score in the second half when a penalty was awarded them but the center forward shot the ball right into the hands of the goal-keeper.

For the winners, Liang was easily the star of the team. Mo at center half was in great form and deserves credit. Both wings were good, and Har at full-back did a lot of strong defense work. The goalie also saved several difficult shots.

The Tsinghua team was greatly handicapped by the absence of three of its regular players who were hurt in the game with Peking last Monday. The center-half played a wonderful game both in defense and in attack. The center-forward, Tsai, and the left wing were also outstanding players.

Mr. Allen of the British Navy team refereed the game with his usual skill, and handled the players to the satisfaction of both teams.

Harbour Notification
No. 3 of 1923

Harbour Regulations for the Port of Shanghai:
Amendment of Clauses Nos. 32 and 38, and Regulations Governing the Treatment of Chlorate of Potash, Phosphorus and Amorphous Phosphorus.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Chinese Government and the Treaty Power Consuls have sanctioned the amendment of Clauses Nos. 32 and 38 of the Harbour Regulations for the Port of Shanghai, and approved regulations governing the treatment of Chlorate of Potash, Phosphorus and Amorphous Phosphorus.

Clauses Nos. 32 and 38 as amended are as follows:

32.—"Vessels having on board cargo Calcium Carbide, Oil of Mirbane, Acids and other dangerous cargoes shall be berthed on the Pootung side of the river where such cargoes shall be stored only in special godowns approved by the Customs. Vessels loading such cargo shall do so only where it is permitted to be discharged and from there proceed to sea.

Chlorate of Potash and Phosphorus shall be treated in accordance with the special Regulations governing these articles as appended.

38.—"In the case of wrecks within the Harbour, or in the approaches to the port, which form a danger to navigation, if no active steps for removal have been taken within a reasonable time—as specified by the Harbour Master—the wreck will be removed or destroyed by the Marine Department of the Customs."

The regulations concerning the treatment of Chlorate of Potash, Phosphorus and Amorphous Phosphorus will be appended to the Harbour Regulations. Advance copies of these regulations may be had on application to the Harbour Master's Office.

POST OFFICE

NOTIFICATION No. 566

Complaints have, in the past, been received from the public regarding delay or loss of mail matter whilst in the custody of the Post Office. Investigation has shown that such delay or loss might in many cases have been avoided by reasonable precautions, and by adherence to postal rules. For public guidance, and to ensure the proper transmission and delivery of mail matter through the Post, attention is drawn to the following points:—

1. It is of the greatest importance that all articles to be sent through the Post should be addressed legibly and completely. The Post Office declines all responsibility in the case of insufficiently addressed articles. To be complete, an address must mention the name of the addressee, his rank or business, the street and number of the house, and, if addressed to a place in China, the town as well as the province; if intended for a place abroad, the country and its territorial subdivision—state, county or department in which the town is situated, must be given.

2. The public—especially residents in the interior—are recommended to have prepared printed or written labels of thin paper bearing their name and address in Chinese, and to send them to their correspondents in order that these labels, in addition to the foreign address, may be affixed to postal articles to be sent to them. Similarly those in correspondence with persons resident in the interior of China who have not received such slips are advised to request their correspondents to supply them for use, as mentioned above.

3. Newspapers and Periodicals from abroad frequently reach China with wrappers torn and broken beyond identification. The public are consequently advised, in their own interest, to request senders—especially agents who bundle several periodicals in one packet—to

(a) Write or stamp the name and address of the addressee on the face of each periodical, as well as on the wrapper, so as to render delivery possible in case the wrapper is lost.

(b) Use strong packing-paper wrappers.

(c) Tie these wrappers round the papers securely with string.

4. Since the withdrawal of the foreign postal agencies from China, the reduced rates of postage which were in operation from certain foreign countries to their agencies in China no longer apply, and mail matter from abroad (except Japan, Korea, the Leased Territory of Kwantung, Taiwan, Hongkong and Macao, to and from which special rates operate) must be franked according to the rates fixed by the Universal Postal Union (International Tariff). Mail matter received in China from foreign countries without postage affixed according to international rates is liable to be taxed double the amount of the deficiency. The public are therefore advised to call the attention of their foreign correspondents to the necessity of franking mail matter according to the international rates.

5. To assist the Post Office in providing good service, the public are also requested to refer to the Postal Commissioner every case where an apparent irregularity occurs, as, in case of neglect of duty, non-discovery in one instance is likely to lead to a repetition of the offence. The cover of any article of correspondence about which complaint is made should, if possible, be forwarded to the Postal Commissioner with such complaint. Where correspondence has been misdirected or delayed, all that the complainant need do is to write on the cover "Misdirect to..." "Not delivered till..." as the case may be, and send it without letter to the Commissioner.

The importance of the above precautions cannot be too strongly emphasised, and strict adherence to them would prevent much annoyance to patrons of the Post Office, as well as difficulty to the postal employees responsible for the handling of the mails.

C. H. SHIELDS,
Postal Commissioner.

Explains Hitch In Weihaiwei Parleys

(China Press Service) Peking, Jan. 30.—Mr. Yao Tung-yu, a member of the House of Representatives, addressed an interpellation to the Government yesterday with regard to the hitch in the negotiations between the Chinese and British Commissioners for the retrocession of Weihaiwei.

Mr. Yao points out that the demands of the British delegation for the reservation of Liu Kung Tao Harbor as an anchorage for the British Naval Squadron—its navigation and administrative rights, the right of perpetual lease of land, etc.—if conceded, would render the proposed retrocession of Weihaiwei meaningless. He also takes exception to the British demand that a Britisher shall be employed as advisor to the Weihaiwei Administration.

The Government is asked to reply within three days regarding its attitude towards the British demands, which, Mr. Yao alleges, brought the Sino-British Conference to a standstill.

The survivors were rescued after clinging to a smoke-stack for two days in a blistering sun. Seventeen lives were lost in the wreck of the Ajax, including 2 officers, one woman and 14 men.

Up to the present eight ships of Admiral Stark's fleet have arrived at Mariveles. The three others are reported to be 150 miles off and are expected tomorrow morning.

A child was born on board the Paris soon after her arrival.

The Paris ran ashore at Formosa. Her bow is badly battered and the crew is exhausted. The Captain has requested a day's rest before putting them through quarantine.

Britain Announces Stand On Tibet

(China Press Service) Peking, Jan. 29.—The Chinese report that a cablegram from Mr. Chu Chao-hsin, Chinese Charge d'Affaires at London, expresses the stand of the British Government concerning Tibet, which lies mainly in the industrial development of Tibet.

The British are maintaining that the communications and mining enterprises there should be undertaken by Sino-British firms and that the customs at Yatung and Ching-tse should be put aside for the development of industries and the improvement of the internal administration, being assured of equal participation in these matters.

Dr. Chu adds that the British Government will be quite ready to offer an easy solution to the other questions.

Hisband May Strike His Wife, Judge Decides

(China Press Correspondence) Paris, by mail.—A husband has the right to strike his wife, so a police court Judge decided recently in trying a case brought before him by an irate woman. The decision was based on an article of the Civil Code regarding the principle of marital authority in relation to public order and family organization.

The woman accused her husband of knocking her down, but a witness declared that he struck her, then pushed her down, after she had responded violently to a reprimand. The Magistrate declared that under the circumstances the husband was acting within "the right of correction" bestowed upon him by the code. Explaining his decision, the Judge declared that in matters of public order and family organization a woman could not free herself from her husband's authority, but added that this authority was subject to control of the courts, to which the woman might address herself to escape acts of oppression.

Will Campaign For Disarmament During New Year Holidays

In co-operation with the local Chinese press, the theaters, cinemas, amusement parks and artists, the Committee on Disarmament, Finance and Constitution of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce will conduct an extensive program of propaganda work on disarmament during the China New Year.

Several theaters will put on special performances on the necessity of disarmament of superfluous troops; artists will depict the evils of warfare and militarism for publication in the press and for slides to be displayed at movie shows. Storytellers will incorporate the idea of disarmament in their funny fables, while students will lecture on how the nation is being bankrupted through armament.

Besides, the committee will print hundreds of thousands of leaflets, scrolls, pictures to educate the mass and to awaken them to the need of disarmament. Voluntary contributions amounting to over $3,000 have already been raised among the committee members, who meet on Wednesdays and Fridays of each week.

STRIKE PROLONGED

(China Press Service)

Hankow, Jan. 26.—The Tayeh miners strike was pretty near settlement when it was announced that the scale of their wages would be increased and allowances would be given to miners for the period of strike.

A subsequent announcement, however, postponed the increase until after the China New Year and turned the other terms of agreement to the consideration of the Han-Yeh-Ping Iron and Coal Co. This gave rise to further labor agitations at Tayeh besides prolonging the strike.

BOOKING AT ROBINSON'S

"THE LEATHER PUSHERS"

The first Round of the Wonderful Ring Romances Series.

When the Universal Picture Corporation announced its decision to film the series of H. C. Witwer's popular stories of "The Leather Pushers" the director was besieged with applications from some of the best known pugilists in the ring today. As a result the services of Sam McVey, Jack Renault, Danny Hayes, Frankie Ryan and Bob Armstrong were obtained.

But the professional "pugs" admitted that they earned their money because Denny is a rugged athlete and highly trained boxer. When he starts in to fight in front of the camera his opponent knows that he is in a scrap. Several times Danny forgot all about acting and fell into a regular slugging bee and Director Pollard had to stop the camera and drag the man apart.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5th

It is not every day that one has an opportunity to see a film that runs through twelve reels of suspense, of marvellous staging, of breathless interest, of superb acting; and it is not every picture of 12 reels that one can sit through without fatigue, without monotony,—spell-bound, enchanted, living through the fascinating adventures of the actors, participating in their joys and griefs, their hopes and disappointments. Yet such a picture is "ATLANTIDE". It is a picture at once daring in its scope, deep and intense in its mystery and fascination.

American Action On German Reparations

Note: Oscar T. Crosby, formerly Assistant Secretary of the United States Treasury and President of the Inter-Ally Council of War Purchases and Finance during the war, has just finished a survey of financial and economic conditions in Germany. In the subjoined article which was written just before the French occupation of the Ruhr Basin and after a thorough and sympathetic study of the situation both in Germany and in France, he develops many of the main considerations at issue and indicates the difficulties in the way of a settlement.

BY OSCAR T. CROSBY

It behooves us just now to turn our attention to the announcement that the German Government is ready to ask President Harding to appoint a commission which shall report upon a sum of reparations that Germany can pay.

That phrase also means little until it carries with it the length of time within which payment is to be made, date of beginning and scale of annual payments. In the main, however, the idea is a good one. Anticipating some difficulty from France in accepting our arbitration by a governmental commission of the reparations sum to be paid I proposed in the Berlin press last April that an unofficial commission of persons from countries not directly interested in reparations be invited by the German Government to pass upon their own presentation of their situation and their own proposition of settlement, including such modifications of the Versailles Treaty as they might think necessary for the fulfillment of any considerable undertaking.

The report of such a commission would not be binding upon the creditors of Germany but would have much weight in clearing the atmosphere of the "You are a liar!" poison which now makes sick men both of Teuton and Frank. An unofficial body could have gone to work immediately on the whole nasty mess. For a time this proposition received some serious consideration in Berlin, but the Genoa conference loomed on the horizon and poor Rathenau followed the mirage of Lloyd George's good intentions.

Of course the French Government has learned something and has a less feverish public opinion to deal with since last spring. But ere we pin our faith to the promised American commission as a solvent of all the difficulties it may be well to consider the matter from the French point of view. Let us not hastily condemn M. Poincare if he should refuse assent or, while saying yes, attack conditions of difficult fulfillment.

Observe that, as the cables indicate, the Germans expect a "new reparations treaty" to result from the American findings. That seems a simple and sound thought. Alas! nothing is simple that has to do with that cursed of complication known as the Versailles Treaty. The vital question of national security for France is tied up with reparations. Let us see how.

The first lien upon German resources under the treaty is for securing payment of the cost of military occupation of the west bank of the Rhine. If you were called upon to estimate what Germany can pay for reparations you would first have to know whether or not that first charge is to be continued and also its magnitude if continued.

True, you might report alternative figures, one set based upon occupation costs, taken at a sum X, and one based upon no occupation costs, and the French might be supposed to make their option between the two. But here comes in another cross-consideration. Quite naturally the French contemplate a settlement as something clearing the way for a loan to Germany, largely devoted to repayment of the sums already expended on German account. Yet prospective leaders throughout the world might say, "No, I don't care to invest my money in an unarmed man against whose head another man holds a pistol night and day. Under such circumstances my prospective debtor would be nervous. He would be too jumpy to work well."

That also seems simple and fairly sound. So, if the French want a settlement in order that a loan may be made would they in fact have an option to accept the reparations figure based on continued occupation of the Rhineland?

Let us look at the matter in another light—always, remember, from the Eiffel Tower. Suppose the arbitral commission should take the view that German industry could produce and sell an exportable surplus of a given amount with or without the irritating elements of foreign military occupation. They would thus take no account of the jumpiness of the situation. In such case the sum available for reparations would be increased by every dollar saved on occupation costs and all other similar charges connected with the execution of the treaty. In other words, what would in one case go to the French War Department would in case of withdrawal of troops go to the Reconstruction Department or to the Pension Bureau.

But what about the resulting military situation? Would not the French army have to be increased in order to maintain a given degree of security against attack if the Rhine be given up as a military frontier? It would seem so. Against this "seems so" it may be urged that the chance of German war making would be lessened by ending one important cause of friction. And so I think. But French thought on this subject has followed the lines of Bismarck's reasoning when the shoe was on the other foot. That practical person said in substance, "We might as well exact a war indemnity and obtain good military frontiers because, whether we do or do not make these exactions, the French will surely attack us again as soon as they feel strong enough."

The Versailles Treaty was certainly inspired by a similar sentiment. If it continues in force among responsible Frenchmen the only logical conclusion would be the maintenance of a larger army after retirement from the Rhine—larger than the one now on hand. The value to them of a given sum turned over as reparations funds would be correspondingly reduced. Not a pleasant prospect for our late associates in war.

There is one item of German indebtedness which must be disposed of before any estimated or realized exportable surplus can be devoted to reparations payments. That is the very considerable sum now overdue for occupation expenses in the past. Disregard for the moment any question of future occupation. Take our own case. The American people own by virtue of our treaty with Germany a claim against her Government for a large sum—more than two hundred million dollars as I recall it. We have with other claimants for occupation expense a priority over reparations claims. Who can waive that priority which is the property of all of us? Not the Administration certainly. The Senate by treaty or the Congress—both houses—by statute. That will take time, to say the least. Yet if not done the first proceeds of a loan to Germany or of a payment from current resources must be devoted to the satisfaction of these occupation arrears.

We and others can of course remove this difficulty, but if not clearly foreseen by all parties it will certainly lead to heart burnings.

Assume, now, the fixation of a sum that Germany can pay and, as one solution, the withdrawal of troops from the Rhineland. Assume further a loan to Germany. It is not in the least probable that such a loan can be as great as the total sum assessed for reparations. The remainder would be witnessed by German bonds in the possession of France and others interested in reparations. They would be easily divided in the agreed ratios. Little would be left of the existing multifarious duties of the reparations commission. Its demise might even be demanded by prospective lenders.

But, if it goes out of the new treaty, will the right of reoccupation of the Rhineland in case of default by Germany on her promises to pay also cease? I mean by this default in respect to bonds given directly to allied Governments—those sold to private investors by the German Government would not carry such a right. This point must be borne in mind by a French Government acting now in so vital a matter. It cannot be denied that even a competent commission may guess wrong as to Germany's ability to pay.

And the Berlin Government, so anxious to make an end of its troubles, may undertake today more than it can perform tomorrow. Such has been its belated course so far. Mr. Micawber has imitators among States as well as among individuals.

And a French critic might add, "Mr. Micawber, indeed, gave his I. O. U.'s carelessly, but we have no reason to doubt that he was willing to pay when he could. As to these Teutonic notes I believe, with the American commission which is to fix their amount, that Germany can pay; but I am not sure that Germany will pay. Where are my guaranties?" Now, in my opinion, this obsession for guaranties from debtor States may easily be pushed too far for the good of the creditor State; but I feel sure that we shall hear more of them before we get to the end of the serial which has just begun.

There are many other treat conditions affecting the amount that Germany can pay. Many of these run in favor of the Allied and Associated Powers. Will Liberia consent to their modification?

But the reader is wearied by a recitation of difficulties. The time which I hoped the German Government would not waste has been wasted. Meanwhile the oppressed men in Berlin and in Paris are still stumbling along a thorny path.

For us, patience and charity toward all—even if Poincare should propose that our claims against his Government should be reduced if our commission should fix German payments at less than some amount named by him. If he does make such a condition the serial story will surely be temporarily interrupted.

China In 1922

HONAN

In the early Spring of this year great hopes were entertained that the new Tachun General Feng would bring with him an era of prosperity. Unfortunately these hopes were not realized. After the defeat of Chao Ti, the old governor his troops were scattered all over the Province and this only added to the number of bandits for which Honan from time immemorial has been famous.

General Feng proceeded to create a new army. He enlisted and drilled many new troops. His army certainly has left behind a name for discipline and good behavior; this is not only rejoiced in by the Christian Church, but is at once admitted by those who differ from him in the matter of religion. The bandits might easily have been put down if General Feng had been given a free hand. Unfortunately General Chiu, whose troops were astride the Peking Hankow Railway was madly jealous of Feng. He and others refused to deal with the bandits in the Western section of the Province, nor were they willing for Feng to send his troops there.

Taking advantage of this state of affairs the bandit army, some 20,000 strong, made a raid right across Honan from West to East, penetrating the Anhwei Province as far as Ing Chow-fu. Many large cities as well as market towns were burnt to the ground. Their way at night was lit with the burning homesteads. All carts and animals were commandeered. They were most cruel in the treatment of their own people, rape and murder were the order of the day. Large numbers of wealthy people were driven off like flocks of sheep to be held for ransom.

Formerly foreigners had been free from molestation, but these men first seized two Frenchmen who worked on the Lung Hai Railway, then in other towns they captured 3 American missionaries and one little child, 3 British missionaries, and one Italian priest. The mission premises in some instances were burnt to the ground; all were looted.

The bandit army with its prisoners and loot returned from the East and crossed the railway once more South of Chumantien. The Government troops put up some show of fighting, but they were quite outnumbered and the army of bandits reached the Western Hills safely.

Various protests had been made through the legations in Peking, but very little was done till a large and influential public meeting was held in Hankow. Strong representations were again made to Peking and it was planned to send a committee of investigation to Honan. We Pei-fu finding things beginning to get rather warm, and feeling at last that the responsibility for these outrages rested on his shoulders began to bestir him.

self. Large forces were sent after the brigands, including aeroplanes in a few weeks' time most of the foreigners were released as the result of pressure and negotiations combined. It is said that the two French engineers are still in their hands.

Last year Honan suffered from floods, this year unfortunately there has been but little rain. The wheat crop was fairly good in the Spring, but the Autumn crops, owing to the drought, have largely failed. In many places no wheat has yet been sown and the people are very anxious.

In spite of all these adverse conditions one has only to look at the overloaded freight trains to see that a good deal of business is being done.

There is a big opportunity for those who can introduce foreign goods into Honan. The Chinese are tired of the trumpery stuff made by Japan. After visiting some of the other Provinces of China one realises that Honan with its large population is a great field for commercial enterprise.

Honan is flooded with copper coins, and the dollar now changes for 1,900-2,000. Dollars in many places are very scarce; the people in these stormy days must be hiding large quantities. The Missions in Honan report distinct progress. The fact that the Governor and his army of soldiers were professing Christians have led many to examine the claims of Christ. Everywhere the missionaries and the Chinese pastors and evangelists are finding a welcome. Many churches have been found too small for the crowds attending. Hospital work is well to the front as a Christian and philanthropic agency. The many wounded soldiers found that Christianity not only brought peace to men's souls but relief from pain and healing for their bodies. A new hospital connected with the China Inland Mission has been completed in Kaifeng, largely with the help of funds from Chinese sources.

Mission schools are also crowded with scholars, and at last Honan, the most backward of Provinces in the matter of education, seems to be waking up.

Selecting important news from this stock, he writes it to Japan. The apparatus is kept busy, secrecy is maintained. The famous wireless telegraph. The Japanese radio station communicating with that in the "Paradise" is known. As there are no private radio stations in Japan, foreign stations in Shanghai suspect that the news is being received by the Foreign Office or the War Office. Other accountable points are that the work is too large to be undertaken privately by Mr. Otani, so there must be some big force at his back. While he has no productive enterprises, he is spending an enormous sum of money. Where does he get so much? asks Tokiwa.

The spending of much money is a confirmed habit of Mr. Otani, though some years ago the affairs of the Hongwanji got into such disorder that his outlay had to be strictly supervised. The most interesting point about the new Buddhist propaganda, however, is not the amount which Mr. Otani may be spending on it, but the form which religious propaganda has taken. It will be remembered in this connection that the right of religious propaganda was one of the Twenty-one Demands.

This World's Strange Birth

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS
(Eminent Astronomer and Authority on Subjects of Scientific Interest)

"Will you be kind enough to explain the meaning of 'instability' as used in Prof. J. H. Jeans' theory of the 'pear-shaped' origin of the earth? Prof. Jeans states that the system started with a spherical nebula endowed with a small amount of rotation. As it cools it loses energy, the temperature of the interior not cooling as quickly as the outside, and this lag of interior temperature will bring about an 'instability.'—Miss E. W., New York University."

I wonder if Mr. A. B. See would consider this to be a specific instance of the necessity for setting fire to women's colleges? "What business," he may say, "has a young woman to be troubling her head over the instability of nebulae? Her proper business is with the stability of the kitchen."

It would suffice to tell him that the instability of the original nebula made kitchens and young women possible because if that nebula had never broken up there would have been no earth for them to exist on. Therefore, my correspondent very properly and intelligently takes an interest in the ABC of cosmogony, i.e., the study of the origin and development of this world.

She goes on to state clearly other points of the theory, such as that the contraction of the nebula, due to cooling, would again tend to instability, and as a result of the instability so produced, the nebula would change its form and become more or less pear-shaped.

The narrow end would then separate from the body and assume an independent existence as a primitive planet. This process would occur again and again till the nebula was resolved into a sun, with its attendant planets. These planets, existing at first as gaseous, or quasi-gaseous, masses, would be liable to the same kind of transformation and might produce moons or satellites.

Finally, she avers that others besides herself (young women also, I hope) are interested in this subject, and honors me with a request for an opinion about it.

I think it is a very good substitute for, or modification of, the old Laplacean hypothesis. All of these theories have to be based upon the assumption which we cannot be sure have been quite realized in nature. But in this matter a hint may be taken from the astrologers who, when their clients cannot give them the time of their birth, work their rules backward, and infer the time from the consequences. So the cosmologist may occasionally have to walk by the rays of the lantern of deduction when the sun has set on the inductive highway.

It does indeed seem almost unbelievable that there could have been a time when this solar system, now composed of a central sun around which swing eight principal planets, together with their moons revolving around them, besides comets, meteor swarms, etc., was a pear-shaped mass of primitive matter, glowing dimly amidst cold space, while it slowly condensed, rotating around an axis at right angles to its greatest length, until the tip of the "pear" broke off—a baby planet born in the open sky! And then the dynamic tip forming, over and over, and breaking off repeatedly as a planetary bud until the process ended in a sun and a system of worlds!

But something of that kind must have occurred. We can be as sure that the solar system is the result of an evolutionary process as we are that a plant or an animal is such a result. All existence is development, one way or the other, anabasis or katabasis, "going up" or "going down," formation or dissolution, each equally important.

What is meant by Professor Jeans when he speaks of instability in a rotating and cooling nebula is that stages are reached when the forces that give shape to the nebula are no longer balanced so as to keep the shape unaltered. If you balance an egg on its point it is in unstable equilibrium, because the slightest disturbance oversets it and such disturbances are sure to occur. But if the egg lies on its side, although it can be disturbed and made to rock to and fro, yet it is in stable equilibrium because if left to itself it will always return to the same position of rest.

Now, it has been shown mathematically that if at every point within a spherical gaseous nebula, starting in a state of equilibrium, the temperature should always vary inversely as the radius of the shrinking sphere, then the nebula would continue in a stable condition. But probably in a shrinking nebula the temperature within would be relatively too high, and thus instability would be produced, resulting in the breaking up of the nebula.

but from many other countries he gathers information of all sorts—political, military, and religious.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying power, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them wilfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

January 31, 1923

Spot bar silver was unchanged and forward up 1-16d. in London yesterday. The New York price advanced to 65 1/2 cents and the London-New York cross rate to 46 1/4. Our official Sterling rate here this morning was dropped to 3-04, the Gold Dollar rate to 70 1/2, the Yen rate raised to 69 1/2 and the other rates changed accordingly.

Our market opened steady and became firm in the course of the morning particularly for near delivery. At the close there were sellers of Sterling at 3-1 1/2 for cash, 3-1 1/2 for the first half of February, 3-1 1/2 for the second half of February, 3-0 15-16 March and 3-0 1/2 for April delivery.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 72 1/2 cash, 72 1/2 for first half of February, 72 for second half February and 71 1/2 for forward delivery. There were buyers of Sterling at 3/4 d and Gold Dollars at 1/4 point above these rates.

There were sellers of Yen for delivery this side of China New Year at 67 and buyers at 66 1/2.
There were sellers for March at 67 1/2 and buyers at 67 1/2. Banks were quoting 3-2 1/2 and 74 for Sterling and Gold Dollar bills for delivery prior to China New Year and 3-1 1/2 and 73 1/2 for subsequent deliveries.

Franc bills could probably have been placed at about 122 1/2.

India bought a small amount of silver in London yesterday and the market there is reported as steady. There was nothing doing in the New York
